Greensborough War Memorial Park Ceremonial Fire

Greensborough RSL has played a major role in a local initiative known as 'Homefront' which was a project to farewell the existing sculptures and create new sculptures for the local Greensborough War Memorial Park. Made in 2003 by a local chainsaw artist, Leigh Conkie, the 12 wood sculptures depicted military personnel and have been a popular feature of the park. Many were showing their age with some of the sculptures splitting or suffering from water damage.

On Saturday, 9th September, the beloved wooden sculptures came to the end of their functional life. The night consisted of a sculptural fire, cremating the original sculptures. The ceremonial fire was lit by former and current members of the Military and was attended by many of our members and local residents. The Homefront project has been initiated to undertake a respectful and meaningful process to replace the sculptures. The project aims to acknowledge and celebrate the resilience of service men and women, their families and communities as they rebuild their lives and relationships following deployment.

The new sculptures are being designed by local artists in consultation with war veterans using their stories and images from the local community to form the basis of the design for new sculptures.

It is hoped the new sculptures will be completed in time for our 2018 Anzac Day Service. For more information regarding the old sculptures go to www.homefrontsculpture.com.au.

FINAL DARTS REPORT

A Grade – Greensborough Blue "Hogs"

Recent results:

11 20/9 VS RSL on Bell Arrows (H) 0 – 11

12 27/9 VS Watsonia Red (A) 2 – 9

13 04/10 VS Darebin Warriors (H) 4 – 7

14 11/10 VS BYE

Another season over! Unfortunately we only won one game (6 -5) & although competitive at times we mostly struggled and were out of our "depth". It appears we may (hopefully) be relegated to "B" Grade next season (starts in Feb '18). I am sure we can win many games and probably make the finals, also regain the "fun" & confidence.

The team has had a big turnover of players and some find it difficult to make regular commitment each week.

We will keep "plodding" away as the old saying applies, "You can only do your best!".

Thanks Greensborough RSL for your continued support.
Until next year.
